Monitor | Rule Management | Server Setup | Administration

Components | Extensions | Directives | Debugger | Monitor | Job Queue

View: Popular   All   [ ]   Search   Save Changes

always_populate_raw_post_data - Always populate the $HTTP_RAW_POST_DATA variable   ○ On ◉ Off arg_separator.input - List of separator(s) used by PHP to parse input URLs into variables   & arg_separator.output - The separator used in PHP generated URLs to separate arguments   & auto_append_file - Automatically append and parse a file to PHP   /home/prod/append.php auto_globals_jit - Initializing auto-globals on the first use or at the start of the request   ◉ On ○ Off auto_prepend_file - Automatically prepend and parse a file to PHP   [ ] default_charset - Default character set   [ ] default_mimetype - Default MIME type   text/html

gpc_order - GPC variables registration order   [ ] post_max_size - Sets max size of post data allowed   8M register_argc_argv - Tells PHP whether to declare the argv & argc variables   ○ On ◉ Off register_globals - Tells whether or not to register the EGPCS as global variables   ○ On ◉ Off register_long_arrays - To register the deprecated long $HTTP_*_VARS type predefined variables   ○ On ◉ Off request_order - Describes the order in which PHP registers GET, POST and Cookie variables into the _REQUEST array   GP track_vars - If enabled, then Environment, GET, POST, Cookie, and Server variables can be found in the global arrays   ○ On ◉ Off variables_order - Set the order of the EGPCS variable parsing   GPCS

▶ date

Error Handling and Logging

⟳ Restart PHP